

Nawah

Within the framework of the existing work system between the Center for Entrepreneurship, ILO, the International Labor Organization, and the Middle East Council for Small Enterprises and Entrepreneurship (MCSBE).

The Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport sponsored the "Nawat" competition, which is a preliminary competition to attend the Egypt Entrepreneurship Summit 2019, and provides an opportunity for young entrepreneurs who have qualified for the finals to obtain training to develop their skills, in addition to the opportunity to win financial prizes of up to 250 thousand pounds and post-programming programs Contest ends.

For the sixth year in a row, the Nawah competition is working to support idea owners and startups that they develop their ideas, implement them effectively and grow them!

Nawah is an integrated competition that will help you to develop your idea / startup company during the competition period and after it through mentoring and mentorship programs in addition to financial prizes
