

RIBA benefits and services

RIBA Student Membership: individual students

- The RIBA Student member category is for individuals who are studying RIBA parts 1 or 2 (or are in their year out between part 1 and part 2) at an RIBA validated school of architecture anywhere in the world
- Student membership is free, and gives RIBA Student Members access to the following:
 - the RIBA Members Information Centre can answer your questions about any aspect of architectural research or practice; call 0207 307 3600 or email the Information Centre
 - 10% discount at the RIBA online bookshop (also valid instore)
 - During any stay in the UK as a member, you can borrow books from the British Architectural Library, the largest and most comprehensive resource in the United Kingdom for research and information on all aspects of architecture
 - Find out about issues affecting architecture students via the RIBA Student Newsletter
 - Get the latest developments, advances and news from the construction industry via the RIBA Member Update
 - During any stay in the UK, attend RIBA talks, lectures and events (and get a discount if there is a fee)
 - As a Student Member, you can also opt to receive the RIBA Journal for a discounted rate of £118.20 per year if outside it (usually £197 for non-members)
 - Funding opportunities just for student members, including RIBA Foster Travelling Scholarship and RIBA Boyd Auger Scholarship
 - Enter the RIBA Presidents Medals
- Graduates with both part 1 and part 2 can apply to be associate members:
