

1.3.1 Bottom financial quintile admission target

2023-2024

Percentage of Bottom financial quintile admission

AASTMT's anti-poverty programs include a broad range of financial aid schemes, scholarships, and partnerships with charitable and philanthropic organizations that promote social inclusion, economic resilience, and investment in human capital. Through the coordinated efforts of the Financial Affairs, Admission and Registration, and Students Affairs Departments, the Academy identifies and assists low-income and vulnerable students, including those from developing countries and students with disabilities.

AASTMT aims to provide financial support to students that fall into the bottom 20% of household income group to enable them to access admission to the AASTMT. The percentage ranges between 10% and 15% of new students each semester provided that supporting documents are submitted.
