The latest cabinet appointments see Dr. Mohamed Farid Saleh taking charge as the Minister of Investment and Foreign Trade, while Dr. Pilot Sameh El-Hefny continues his impactful leadership as the Minister of Civil Aviation.

The wave of appointments also extends to vital provincial leadership roles, where our alumni are set to make a significant impact as Governors and Deputy Governors:

- Dr. Hanan Magdy : Governor of the New Valley.
- Dr. Ahmed Essam El-Din Mousa : Deputy Governor of Ismailia.
- Dr. Enas Samir Hafez: Deputy Governor of South Sinai.
- Dr. Amr Othman : Deputy Governor of Port Said.

Congratulations to our ambassadors! Your success serves as a beacon of inspiration for the entire AASTMT community, proving once again that our graduates are today's experts and tomorrow's leaders.

AASTMT President Honors Heroic Alumnus Capt. Ahmed Omar for Mediterranean Rescue at Marlog 15 Closing Ceremony

In a powerful tribute to professional integrity and human bravery, H.E. Professor Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar Ismail Farag, President of the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport (AASTMT), honored Captain Ahmed Omar during the closing ceremony of the International Maritime Transport and Logistics Conference (Marlog 15) in Alexandria. Captain Ahmed Omar, serving as the Officer of the Watch (OOW) on the vessel STAR, was recognized for his heroic role in a high-stakes rescue operation in the Mediterranean Sea.

A Heroic Response at Sea: During a scheduled voyage, Capt. Ahmed Omar and his crew successfully rescued a migrant following the tragic capsizing of an illegal migration vessel—an incident that reportedly claimed the lives of approximately 50 others on board.

During the ceremony, Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar lauded the courage and professional caliber of Capt. Omar and his crew, stating:

"What Capt. Ahmed Omar achieved is a shining example of the caliber of AASTMT graduates. It reflects a profound commitment to international maritime treaties and the humanitarian values that govern the global shipping industry."

The Human Element in Maritime Excellence

The President emphasized that honoring such bravery sends a vital message regarding the "Human Element" in maritime transport.

He noted that the Academy remains dedicated to celebrating alumni who elevate the reputation of Egypt and the Arab world through discipline and professional responsibility on the international stage.

For his part, Second Officer Ahmed Omar expressed his deep gratitude to the Academy and Dr. Abdel Ghafar for this gesture. He remarked that his actions were a fulfillment of the "Duty of Care" dictated by maritime ethics and international law, which mandates providing immediate assistance to anyone in distress at sea.

About Gheit Witnesses the Graduation of the 105th Batch of AASTMT College of Maritime Transport & Technology in a Grand Arab Celebration in Alexandria

His Excellency Dr. Ahmed About Gheit, Secretary-General of the League of Arab States, witnessed the graduation ceremony of the 105th batch of students from the College of Maritime Transport and Technology at the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport (AASTMT). The graduates completed their basic studies in the specializations of Maritime Transport Technology and Marine Engineering Technology, representing three nations: Egypt, Lebanon, and Sudan.

The grand ceremony was attended by H.E. Eng. Ayman Attia, Governor of Alexandria; H.E. Major General Staff Yasser Abdel Moez El-Khateeb, Commander of the Northern Military Region; and Rear Admiral Staff Mohamed El-Shinawy, Chief of the Naval Training Department, representing H.E. the Commander of the Egyptian Navy

Also in attendance were H.E. Ambassador Hossam Zaki, Assistant Secretary-General and Chief of the Cabinet of the Secretary-General of the League of Arab States; H.E. Rear Admiral Staff Hussein Mostafa Hussein El-Geziry, Chairman of the Maritime Transport Sector and Vice Deputy Chairman of the AASTMT Executive Council; and Professor Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar Ismail Farag, President of AASTMT.

The event also drew Assistant Secretaries-General of the Arab League, Arab ambassadors, permanent representatives, Arab and foreign consuls, members of the diplomatic corps, General Assembly experts, Executive Council members, the College's Advisory Board, and proud parents.

In his address, the Secretary-General congratulated the graduates, emphasizing that this day crowns years of rigorous preparation and training. He urged them to uphold the principles and values instilled by the Academy to elevate their nations and serve their communities. Dr. About Gheit also paid a profound tribute to the graduates' families, describing them as the true heroes who stood resilient in the face of challenges to prepare their children to serve the Arab nation.

For his part, Professor Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar, President of AASTMT, expressed his pride in the Secretary-General's presence, stating that his attendance serves as vital strategic support for the Academy's journey and its mission in human development.

Today, we celebrate the graduation of a distinguished new cohort from the 105th batch, who have proven their competence and discipline throughout their educational and training journey," Dr. Abdel Ghafar remarked. "At AASTMT, we do not merely graduate maritime specialists; we forge leading personalities equipped with science, core values, and the competitive edge to thrive in the global labor market, out of our firm belief that investing in minds is the true guarantee for the renaissance of our Arab nation." During the celebration, Professor Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar announced the naming of the 105th batch after H.E. Mr. Ahmed About Gheit, in recognition of his lifetime of dedicated service.

The Academy President presented commemorative gifts to both Mr. Ahmed About Gheit and Ambassador Hossam Zaki as a token of appreciation for their loyal efforts in fostering joint Arab action and supporting the Academy's scientific and educational mission. "Our honoring today of the Secretary-General and Assistant Secretary-General Ambassador Hossam Zaki stems from a deep appreciation for their sincere efforts in backing joint Arab action, of which the Academy stands as a proud pillar of success," Dr. Abdel Ghafar added. Professor Dr. Captain Mohi El-Din Mohamed El-Sayeh, Dean of the College of Maritime Transport and Technology, extended his deepest gratitude to the Secretary-General for his unwavering support of education and human capacity building. He also commended the relentless efforts of AASTMT President Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar in elevating the college's international standing. Dr. El-Sayeh highlighted the significant advancements in the college's educational and training tracks, noting the continuous modernization of curricula, laboratories, and simulators to seamlessly align with the evolving demands of the global maritime market.

In the Presence of Aboul Gheit, AASTMT Signs an MoU with "IMKAN Misr" to Establish a New Campus in "Al Burouj"

His Excellency Mr. Ahmed Aboul Gheit, Secretary-General of the League of Arab States, witnessed today at the League's General Secretariat headquarters the signing ceremony of a joint cooperation framework memorandum between the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport (AASTMT) and "IMKAN Misr" for Real Estate Development. This milestone comes as part of AASTMT's comprehensive strategy to elevate higher education and expand its geographical footprint, thereby enhancing its strategic assets to meet its future aspirations.

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by His Excellency Professor Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar Ismail Farag, President of AASTMT, and Eng. Ahmed Magdy Aref, General Manager and CEO of IMKAN Misr. Under this collaboration, IMKAN Misr will allocate 45 acres within the "Al Burouj" project in Shorouk City to establish a state-of-the-art educational and administrative campus, joining AASTMT's network of smart campuses across the Arab Republic of Egypt. This step serves as a pivotal move toward establishing smart, advanced educational facilities capable of accommodating the growing enrollment of students. It further supports AASTMT's vision to align higher education with global standards, particularly in light of the modern technological challenges shaping the future of education.
