16.3.1 Provide Expert Advice to Government

2024/2025

The 2025 Egyptian Summer Mini-Handball Championship at AASTMT

Under the supervision Ministry of Youth and Sports, AASTMT partnered with the participation of the Egyptian Handball Federation to host the 2025 Egyptian Summer Mini-Handball Championship at the AbuKir Campus in Alexandria, the tournament brought together 35 clubs from across Egypt.

The 2025 Egyptian Summer Mini-Handball Championship at AASTMT (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT - Egyptian Competition Authority “Agreement”

AASTMT and the Egyptian Competition Authority (ECA) signed a protocol of cooperation to enhance rule law, experience exchange and raise awareness of competition law. Signed on June 22, 2025, at the Smart Village campus, the strategic agreement focuses on encouraging student training, joint scientific research, and academic cadre exchange. Additionally, it establishes collaborative workshops, seminars, and specialized training programs, while offering students the opportunity to participate in the ECA's annual simulation model.

AASTMT - Egyptian Competition Authority “Agreement” (on AASTMT Website)

"AASTMT" - "Alexandria Economic Court" Workshop

On June 15, 2025, the AASTMT College of Maritime Transport and Technology, in collaboration with the Alexandria Economic Court, hosted a specialized workshop at the AbuKir Campus in Alexandria. Attended by key dignitaries including Counselor Sadek Abdel Salam Bilal and Prof. Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghaffar Ismail, the event addressed the urgent need for modernization in international trade. Discussions focused on public accountability, legal, practical, and technological aspects of managing Electronic Bills of Lading (eBL) alongside navigating the IMO's carbon footprint objectives to offer viable legal and practical solutions for the evolving maritime industry.

AASTMT" - "Alexandria Economic Court" Workshop (on AASTMT Website)

“AASTMT - MAFI for Agricultural Produce Industries” Agreement

On September 23, 2024, to increase stakeholders’ engagement in different sectors, AASTMT and MAFI for Agricultural Produce Industries signed a strategic cooperation protocol at the St Regis Almasa Hotel in Cairo's New Administrative Capital. Signed by AASTMT President and MAFI Founder and Chairman Ahmed Abou Hashima, the partnership connects education with industrial development to foster innovation and technological alignment.

“AASTMT - MAFI for Agricultural Produce Industries” Agreement (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT Delivers 23 Sanitary Landfills across 16 Egyptian Governorates

On October 31, 2024, (AASTMT) announced its major contributions to developing Egypt's solid waste management system over a four-year period (2019–2023). In collaboration with relevant ministries, AASTMT established essential infrastructure, localized advanced waste technologies, and trained specialized local workers to manage operations from collection to safe disposal. As part of this public accountability comprehensive initiative to optimize integrated waste strategies and improve state investment returns, the Academy successfully delivered 23 sanitary landfills spanning 16 governorates.

AASTMT Delivers 23 Sanitary Landfills Across 16 Egyptian Governorates (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT Hosts RoboCup Egypt 2025

From April 16–19, 2025, (AASTMT) hosted and organized the RoboCup Egypt 2025 competition at its main AbuKir Campus in Alexandria. The event stood out as one of Egypt's largest robotics competitions, gathering talented youth teams from across the nation to showcase their skills in participatory research, coding, engineering, and creative technological innovation. This successful tournament marked another major milestone for AASTMT in spearheading tech leadership and supporting future-ready youth innovation.

AASTMT Hosts RoboCup Egypt 2025 (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT and LFRPDA Partner on Mediterranean Fisheries Research

On July 15, 2024, the College of Fisheries and Aquaculture Technology (CFAT) at AASTMT announced its supervisory role over three major research projects in framework cooperation with the Lakes and Fish Resources Protection and Development Agency (LFRPDA). Supported by the General Fisheries Commission for the Mediterranean (GFCM) of the United Nations' FAO, these initiatives focus directly on the Egyptian Mediterranean. As public engagement, the targeted research aims to assess fish stocks of economically significant species, including non-indigenous species (NIS), while monitoring discards, bycatch, and vulnerable marine life.

AASTMT and LFRPDA Partner on Mediterranean Fisheries Research (on AASTMT Website)

"People's Democratic Republic of Algeria" Delegation At AASTMT

On Wednesday, September 10, 2025, (AASTMT) welcomed a high-level Algerian delegation at its AbuKir Campus in Alexandria. The visiting dignitaries included Mr. Ibrahim Abu Ghaly (Speaker of Algeria's People's National Assembly) and Mr. Mohamed Soufiane Berrah (Algerian Ambassador to Cairo and Permanent Representative to the League of Arab States). Hosted by AASTMT President Prof. Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghaffar Ismail Farag, the group toured facilities like the Planetarium and the Integrated Simulator Complex (ISC). Discussions focused on expanding future collaborative decisions and agreements to serve Algerian students and qualify specialized national cadres.

"People's Democratic Republic of Algeria" Delegation At AASTMT (on AASTMT Website)

First Annual Arab Forum on Artificial Intelligence

Held from August 27–28, 2025, at the AASTMT Alamein Campus, this event was organized by (AASTMT) with engagement of the General Secretariat of the League of Arab States under the patronage of Mr. Ahmed Aboul Gheit. Stemming from the May 2025 Baghdad Summit, the forum brought together regional officials and experts—including Egypt's Minister of Communications and Information Technology, Dr. Amr Talaat—to foster regional AI cooperation, boost tech investments, and align local innovations with Arab societal values.

First Annual Arab Forum on Artificial Intelligence (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT President - Director General of the Sudan Sea Ports Authority "Meeting"

On July 24, 2025, AASTMT President welcomed Eng. Gilani Mohamed Gilani (Director General of the Sudan Sea Ports Authority) and his accompanying delegation to the AbuKir Campus. The meeting focused on enhancing public accountability by joint bilateral cooperation across education, training, technical consulting, and expertise exchange to upgrade Sudan's maritime transport sector and optimize its ports' resources. Furthermore, they reviewed the specialized consulting support provided by AASTMT to assist in building strategic development plans for Sudanese ports, highlighting the strong academic bonds underscored by the high enrollment of Sudanese students at the Academy.

AASTMT President - Director General of the Sudan Sea Ports Authority "Meeting" (on AASTMT Website)

Strategic Vision for the Development of Libyan Ports under International Standards"

AASTMT partnered with the Libyan Ports and Maritime Transport Authority to host a workshop at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Tripoli, Libya. The event focused on upgrading Libyan ports to match global safety, maritime security, and environmental protection guidelines by generating collaborative decisions for these upgrading.

Strategic Vision for the Development of Libyan Ports under International Standards" (on AASTMT Website)

League of Arab States Meeting

AASTMT President met with Ambassador Abdulaziz bin Abdullah Al-Matar, the Acting Permanent Representative of Saudi Arabia to the League of Arab States. The two sides discussed kind of AASTMT engagement and cooperative strategies to enhance workforce competencies, share expertise, and address joint-interest topics under coordinated Arab action.

League of Arab States Meeting (on AASTMT Website)

Salem Balhamer Holding Group" Delegation at AASTMT

AASTMT President welcomed an elite delegation from Saudi Arabia's Salem Balhamer Holding Group at the AASTMT Smart Village campus. The meeting, focused on activating bilateral cooperation, engagement and strengthening joint educational and training initiatives between both organizations.

Salem Balhamer Holding Group" Delegation at AASTMT (on AASTMT Website)

The International Conference on Machine Intelligence and Smart Innovation (ICMISI 2025)

Hosted by AASTMT at the AbuKir Campus in Alexandria from May 10–12, 2025, the 2nd IEEE ICMISI 2025 drew participants from 25 countries under the patronage of the Arab League's Secretary General. The event focused on breakthroughs in AI, machine learning, cybersecurity, cyberbullying, IoT, and green technology.

The International Conference on Machine Intelligence and Smart Innovation (ICMISI 2025) (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT - Saudi Border Guards “MOU

AASTMT President and Director General of Saudi Border Guards) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) at the Directorate's headquarters in Riyadh. The partnership focuses on AASTMT engagement, exchanging expertise, developing specialized academic and training programs, and strengthening maritime transport and border security systems.

AASTMT - Saudi Border Guards “MOU (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT President at King Abdulaziz Port Dammam

AASTMT President led a high-level delegation to visit King Abdulaziz Port Dammam (KAPD) in Saudi Arabia. The delegation met with Captain Fahd AlAmer, Director General of the port, to hold talks aimed at AASTMT engagement, strengthening bilateral cooperation and establishing new future joint prospects in maritime operation.

AASTMT President at King Abdulaziz Port Dammam (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT - Free Zone of Giliana in Libya (MOU)

For increasing stakeholders' engagement in regional countries, AASTMT President met with Captain Ahmed Al-Amami, General Manager of the Giliana Free Zone in Libya, at the AASTMT AbuKir Campus in Alexandria. During the visit, they signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) alongside the AASTMT Port Training Institute (PTI) and the Integrated Solutions For Ports Company (ISFP).

AASTMT - Free Zone of Giliana in Libya (MOU) (on AASTMT Website)

Workplace Risk and Safety Analysis Training Delivered for Melitah Oil & Gas – Libya

As kind of raising employee involvement, "Workplace Risk and Safety Analysis" for employees of Melitah Oil & Gas – Libya Led by expert trainer and consultant Eng. Albert Anis, the program focused on building professional capabilities to identify, analyze, and control workplace hazards within high-risk oil and gas environments in alignment with international safety standards.

Workplace Risk and Safety Analysis Training Delivered for Melitah Oil & Gas – Libya (on AASTMT Website)

ICCTA 2025

AASTMT will host the 35th International Conference on Computer Theory and Applications from November 25–27, 2025, at its Abukir Campus in Alexandria. Organized with the Computer Scientific Society and IEEE Alexandria, this hybrid event serves as a global forum for IT specialists to share collaborative decisions and advancements in computer theory. (on AASTMT Website)

ICCTA 2025

Workshop on Communication Systems, Arab Experiences, and Intelligent Systems for Sustainable Transportation

AASTMT Arab Centre for Artificial Intelligence partnered with the League of Arab States (LAS) to host a specialized workshop at the Smart Village Campus. The event gathered ministry representatives, experts, and regional transport unions. The sessions explored regional cooperation, artificial intelligence integration in fleet management, and structural frameworks to advance public-private digital transformations, e-government across Arab nations.

Workshop on communication systems, Arab experiences, and intelligent systems for sustainable transportation (on AASTMT Website)

AASTMT - Youth Leaders Foundation “Cooperation"

AASTMT President and Mr. Ahmed Fathy (Chairman of the Youth Leaders Foundation) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) at the AASTMT Heliopolis campus. This civic engagement partnership aims to empower students through regional leadership initiatives, facilitate academic knowledge sharing, and better bridge student skill sets with evolving industry demands.

AASTMT - Youth Leaders Foundation “Cooperation" (on AASTMT Website)

Exclusive Career Opportunity for AASTMT Graduates (2024/2025) with Land Mark Group

The Landmark Group with participation of recent AASTMT graduates (classes of 2024/2025) from the Business Management and Logistics programs to apply for its Home Centre Management Trainee Program.

Exclusive Career Opportunity for AASTMT Graduates (2024/2025) with Land Mark Group (on AASTMT Website)

"The Committee of Medical Studies Sector of Supreme Council of Universities" Delegation at AASTMT

As AASTMT commitment in community engagement, On August 21, 2025, a delegation from the Committee of Medical Studies Sector of the Supreme Council of Universities visited the AASTMT El Alamein Campus. The delegation was headed by Prof. Dr. Ashraf Hatem, a Member of Parliament and former Minister of Health.

The Committee of Medical Studies Sector of Supreme Council of Universities" Delegation at AASTMT (on AASTMT Website)

Ambassador Nabila Makram Discusses the Challenges of Social Media

On August 21, 2025, Ambassador Nabila Makram (former Minister of Immigration and Chair of the "Fahim" Foundation) led a workshop titled “Social Media and Identity… Our Path to Better Mental Health” on the third day of the Arab Youth Media Creativity Summit at AASTMT's New Alamein campus. This workshop discussed social media effect, cyberbullying and mental health.

Ambassador Nabila Makram Discusses the Challenges of Social Media (on AASTMT Website)