

Cooperation Agreement The Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport And the Arab Industrial Authority and the University of Yuklan in the UK

April 2021

In support of the Arab Republic of Egypt Vision 2030 & Achieve the Sustainable Development Goals

Triple Cooperation Agreement between the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport And the Arab Industrial Authority and the University of Yuklan in the UK. The Arab Academy signed a joint cooperation agreement for training engineers and technicians of Arab industries for manufacturing and obtaining technological courses. Advanced in UK within EU programmes.

This came during the Industry Advisory Council, which was held at the branch of the Arab Academy of Science, Technology and Maritime Transport in the New Alamein City.

The agreement was signed by the Arab side for Manufacturing Major General Dr. "Mujahid Al-Farmawi", Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Helwan Factory on behalf of the Arab Industrial Authority, and on behalf of the Academy, His Excellency Dr. Ismail Abdel Ghafar Ismail Farag, President of The Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport, and on behalf of Yuklan University, United Kingdom, Dr. "A Hamad Helmy Ansi, Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Engineering for Development and Projects.

According to the sides of the agreement, the University of Yuklan bears all the costs of the training courses, and the EU bears travel costs, in support of the University of Yuklan in cooperation with the Arab Academy of Science, Technology and Maritime Transport to develop the Egyptian industry and achieve the vision of the State of Egypt This is in sustainable development SDG in the light of the rapid evolution of digital transformation.

The Council also included the launch of the joint training program between the University of Yuklan, the Arab Academy, and the Arab Industry Authority, aiming to domesticate technology and acquire young people's skills in the labor market, the program aims to train young graduates at the geographical level of the Arab Republic of Egypt. .

The cooperation also includes the invitation of the Arab Authority for Manufacturing factories to attend the Industry Council at the Faculty of Engineering of the University of Yuklan in its session held in April 2020, in the light of the localization of technology and the creation of a climate of international cooperation between Egyptian factories, companies and international entities.

In this context, the team "Abdul Moneim Terras", the head of the Arab Board for Manufacturing, in his speech delivered on his behalf, Dr. "Mujahid Al-Farmawi", stated that we set out together towards the establishment of a new republic in its ideas and vision at all levels, and in its forefront keeping up with technological developments. Logic in all walks of life.

The agreement would contribute to the achievement of the benefit of all parties, regarding training and holding technological courses, and within the framework of the Academy's extensive efforts to promote the development of partnerships with global institutions, companies and national bodies in order to achieve the achievement of the achievement of the The common goals

The academy, as a house of great Arabic experience, offers all its experience in the fields of science, consultation and scientific research to serve the Arab country, certainly that the work to produce successful Arab cadres in all scientific, cultural and sports fields comes at the top of A And the academy awards.

Within the framework of the agreement, it is mentioned that the University of Yuklan is one of the ancient English universities, founded in 1963 and is one of the first English universities in the number of students, and is distinguished by its strong relationship with industry and its superiority in quality of education and practical capabilities, and is one the first universities a For English, which founded a branch in the new administrative capital and works with The Arab Academy, since 1909, supports the development of education, training and industry in the Arab Republic of Egypt.

Link : https://aast.edu/ar/services/media-affairs/news.php?unit=483&event=1105&get_event_type=1&language_id=2&view=1

