Queen's University (Canada)

University/ Institute Name:	Queen's University
Starting date	2013	Valid for	2 years
Brief overview about the signed MOU

The two institutions shall pursue the development an undergraduate student twinning program in the disciplines of electrical and computing engineering, in which students complete the first three years of the undergraduate education at AAST and the final two years at Qeen's, leading to degrees from both institutions

Status

Currently one student is enrolled in this program