

Gamal A. Ghalwash

President Consultant for International Maritime Relations

Arab Academy for Science, Technology & Maritime Transport

- Dr. Ghalwash, Ph.D. holder in Maritime Transport Technology (2004) started his career working on board Merchant Ships for 13 years (1981-1994). He joined the Arab Academy for Maritime Transport and Technology (AASTMT) in 1994 as a Lecturer, Nautical Department, College of Maritime Transport and Technology, 1994-2004.
- As a member of the AASTMT, during the period 2004-2011 he was graded from Head of Maritime Postgraduate Studies Department to Dean of College of Maritime Transport and Technology.
- From 2011-2015 he was Vice President for Maritime Affairs, and from 2015-2021 a Vice president for Training, Community Service and Sustainable Development.
- Meanwhile he is AASTMT President Consultant for International Maritime Relations.
- In 1999 Dr. Ghalwash, as a Maritime Expert, was a member of the AASTMT group team working on the World Bank Project to develop the Maritime Institute in Bangladesh.
- The main field of Dr. Ghalwash is Environmental Protection and Maritime Education and Training.
- He is the head of the AASTMT Team, which participated in the initiation of the Global Maritime Professional Body of Knowledge (GMP-BoK) under the International Association of Maritime

- Universities (IAMU). In 2024, he is the head of the International Committee for establishing the Second Edition of the GMP-BoK
- Dr. Ghalwash is the Editor in Chief of the Maritime Research and Technology (MRT) Journal.